“To be a theologian is to pray truly, and to pray truly is to be a theologian.”

Evagrius of Pontus

Moses said to the lord, “See, you have said to me, ‘Bring up this people’; but you have not let me know whom you will send with me. Yet you have said, ‘I know you by name, and you have also found favor in my sight.’ Now if I have found favor in your sight, show me your ways so that I may know you.”

Exodus 33:12-13

Prayer is about knowing God and being known by God.

Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. Anyone who claims to know something does not yet have the necessary knowledge, but anyone who loves God is known by him.

1 Corinthians 8:1-3

To love God is to be known by God.

To love God is to be known by God.

To know God is to love God and be loved by God.

I knew her smile in an instant,
I knew the curve of her face.
It was my own lovely lady,
and she said, “Aw, it’s you.”
Then we laughed for a moment,
and I said, “I never knew.”

“Escape” by Rupert Holmes

“I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I have said to you.”

John 14:25-26

WHO WANTS TO DO THIS TOGETHER?

Therefore let us go on toward perfection, leaving behind the basic teaching about Christ and not laying again the foundation: repentance from dead works and faith toward God, instruction about baptisms and laying on of hands, resurrection of the dead and eternal judgment.
